City Schools Cultural Afternoon

This afternoon the Kapa groups from our City Schools performed at Mt Cook. Adrienne MacAllister (principal) and the akongā were the perfect hosts who showcased their kapa haka, violinists, and a dance troupe. It was a tremendous afternoon enjoyed by all: Mt Cook (the hosts), Clyde Quay, Sacred Hearts, Thorndon, and Te Aro.

Mt Cook set the bar high so come 2025 there'll be more variety.

Our akongā were the last to perform. Sometimes it's an unenviable position because you automatically compare yourself to the rest. That said, Mātaurangi Clyde Quay held their own. Their waiata, mahi-a-ringā, haka, and pukana were up there with the best of them.

All credit to our tamariki, Matua Hemi, Anya, and Elyse. It was an exciting afternoon with our contingent of whānau supporters enthralled and filled with pride. So was I (Whaea Liz).

Clyde Quay School – Annual Plan 2025

The CQS Board are in the process of considering our school's Annual Plan for 2025.

Your feedback is very important! We invite our school community to contribute your feedback, ideas, and opinions to ensure we understand what is important to you.

Please complete the survey here!

You can find out more about the Ministry of Education requirements and expectations of school planning on the Ministry of Education website.

You can find more information about our school Strategic Plan 2024-25 and Annual Plan 2024 on the school website here.

We'll take all school community feedback into consideration and a drafted Annual Plan for 2025 will be provided early in Term 1 for further consultation with our school community.

We'd be happy to discuss your thoughts further, or receive detailed feedback via email – board@clydequay.school.nz
